

Arrowhead Honeymoon for the Jack Castles

At home after a honeymoon at Lake Arrowhead, are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Castle who were married October 22 at the WALTERIA Methodist church.

The bride, the former Sharon Deering, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rhodes of Palatini, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Castle of San Diego are the parents of the groom.

Miss Deering was escorted to the altar by her father who came to California for the wedding. She wore a ballerina length gown of white lace. A pearl tiara held her lace edged fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

The Reverend David A. Beadles performed the ceremony and Mrs. Pat Ouwendyk played the wedding marches. Mrs. Bonnie Medved sang "I Love Thee," "True Love," and the "Wedding Song" accompanied by Mrs. Ouwendyk.

Honor Attendant was Miss Barbara Deering, sister of the bride, who wore a gown of silver green lace over taffeta and carried green and white carnations.

William Castle was best man for the groom. Richard Nanney was usher.

Mrs. Joann Castle registered about 75 guests at the reception which was held at the church.

The bride graduated from Torrance High School in 1960. Castle, also a graduate of Torrance High, is serving in the United States Navy.

MRS. JACK CASTLE
... Formerly Sharon Deering

Photo by Seemans

Margaret Sewell to Address Auxiliary

Miss Margaret Sewell, Southern California Gas Co. public relations representative, will speak Thursday to the volunteers of the Harbor General Hospital Auxiliary.

The meeting which is open to the public will be held in the auditorium of unit El at 12:30 to 2:30 p.m.

A former high school teacher of speech and English history and journalism has chosen "History Makes Me Blush."

Mrs. Charles Grider, president of the auxiliary, will be presiding at the meeting.

Mrs. Rollin Ring, program chairman, will present Miss Sewell to the group of women who attend.

Banning Alumni Day, Dance Planned Soon

The Junior Woman's Club of Wilmington announce plans are complete for the Eighth Annual Banning Alumni day and dance, Nov. 18.

The day will begin with Open House at Banning High School, Avalon and Pacific Coast Highway in Wilmington, 10:15 a.m. A baby show under the direction of Mrs. James Hostrop has been planned. Mrs. Ronald Dessy is planning an Art Show. Classrooms will be open to visit.

In the afternoon the Homecoming Game will be at Banning Field. Banning versus Gardena, at 2:30 p.m.

The Alumni Dance will be held in the Lafayette Hotel Grand Ballroom, Broadway and Linden, Long Beach. Music will be provided by the Naturals. The price is $1.75 per person.

Annual event is planned by the Junior Woman's Club of Wilmington in accordance with Banning's Principal Bernard Donahue. This year's events were planned under the direction of Mrs. James Hartley club president and Mrs. Ben Tharp general chairman.

Proceeds are used in club philanthropic work and also to provide the Junior Woman's Club alumni scholarship which is given twice a year at Banning to a graduating senior.

Banning alumni are reminded to come and greet old friends, said Mrs. Hartley.

UNTHINKING

Freeways were designed with high traffic flow in mind, but one unthinking motorist who uses the wrong lane can reduce that potential to a nerve-racking crawl in a matter of seconds.

Use classified. Call DA 5-1515

Women

Lavina Nugen ... Women's Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Gondringer-Venegas Vows Pledged at St. Philomena

MRS. ROBERT VENEGAS
... nee Rochelle Gondringer

Photo by Seemans

St. Philomena Catholic Church was the setting for the recent wedding of Miss Rochelle Gondringer and Robert G. Venegas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Venegas of Compton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gondringer, 736 W. 218th St., Torrance.

Officiating at the 11 o'clock services, was Father John Rhode and organ music was played by the parish organist.

Wearing a gown of silk taffeta fashioned with a scalloped neckline with sequins and pear tapers glimmering in a pattern at the neckline, Miss Gondringer was escorted to the altar by her father. Her gown had fingertip sleeves with a row of tiny buttons at the wrist. The bouffant skirt fell into a chapel train. She wore her mother's crown of white braided satin with tiny pearl insets to secure her illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. Carmen DeWitt, Los Angeles, was matron of honor, and she wore a blue flower print with a blue chiffon overskirt. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with blue tips.

Robert Villanueva, South Gate, was the best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gondringer chose a purple flowered sheath with matching accessories. Mrs. Louis Venegas, mother of the groom, wore a black and white dress with matching accessories. Each one wore carnation corsages.

At the reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Tschauner, aunt and uncle of the bride, Mrs. Harry Leventhal registered the guests. Mrs. Leventhal came from South San Francisco to attend her niece's wedding.

After a honeymoon at Laguna Beach, the newly weds are at home at 321 So. Verdugo Road, Glendale, California.

The bride graduated from Banning High School, Wilmington, and is now working as a secretary at the Fuller Paint and Glass Co. in Los Angeles.

Venegas attended Lincoln High School in Los Angeles and is employed at Lyon Aircraft Corp., Burbank.

Use Press classified ads to buy, rent or sell. Phone DA 5-1515.

Woman's Club Play Dates Changed

Drama section of the Torrance Women's Club will give a repeat performance of the comedy farce, "The Campbells Are Coming," which proved so successful when given last March at their clubhouse for two evenings.

For the benefit of the YMCA, this performance will be given at the Torrance High School auditorium at 8 p.m. on February 3. Tickets will be available through the YMCA and from members of the cast.

A previous date in December was announced but owing to other activities at the school, it had to be cancelled. The cast for this repeat performance is as follows: Ma Brannigan - Erma Roberts; Catalpa Tapp - Betty Sandstrom; Betty Brannigan-Barbara Bennett; Dick Brannigan-Noel Shire; Bildad Tapp-Bob Johnston; Cyrus Scudder-Alan Moore; and Jeffery Scudder-Lyle De Cuir.

Kaye Brannigan-Marchetta Goff; Kingston Campbell-Gary Moury; and Mrs. Augusta Campbell-Flora Nelson. Mrs. Godfrey Nelson, dramatic chairman of the club is directing the play.

Barbara Frazee Weds At First Christian Church

At a candlelight double-ring ceremony in the First Christian Church, Miss Barbara Frazee pledged her vows to David Ross, son of Mr. Arnold Ross, 22902 Ladeena Ave., and the late Esther Kelley Ross. For her wedding Miss Frazee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frazee, 22908 Ladeena Ave., chose a white lace ballerina length gown with a hoop-skirt. The gown was fashioned with long pointed sleeves and a round scalloped neckline.

When the bride was given in marriage by her father, she carried a bouquet of two purple orchids surrounded by stephanotis.

Miss Carol Robinson, maid of honor, wore a turquoise nylon dress which was ballerina length and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Lyle Judd, uncle of the bride, was best man and ushers were Robert Remington, cousin of the bride, and Robert Koch. Registering the 75 guests at the reception in the church hall, was Lisette Bonn.

Following the reception, the newly weds left for a honeymoon at Big Bear Lake. The bride was born in Torrance and has always lived in the South Bay area. She attended South High School and was employed at Chicago Bridge and Iron Co. until her marriage.

David Ross was born in Utica, New York. He attended Camelback High School in Phoenix, Arizona. He is now serving with the United States Marine Corp. and is stationed at Camp Pendleton. Mr. and Mrs. David Ross will make their home in San Clemente, California.

MRS. DAVID ROSS
... nee Barbara Frazee

Photo by Seemans

Delta Zetas Slate Business Meeting

Monthly meeting of the South Bay chapter of Delta Zeta Sorority will be held Thursday, Nov. 17, 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Donald Rice-Wray, 7480 McConnell St., Westchester. Mrs. Margo McWilliams, home economist for the Southern California gas company, will present a talk on "Thanksgiving Planning."

Under new business, the group will discuss plans for the Southern California Council's benefit luncheon fashion show, "Flame Fantasy," to be held February 4, 1961, at the Beverly Hilton Hotel. The philanthropy to benefit from this event is the Uni-Betic Camp for diabetic children, sponsored by the Los Angeles Metabolic Clinic, a non-profit organization, conducted for two weeks each summer in the San Bernardino mountains.

'Ali Baba' Puppet Show Sponsored by Sisterhood

"Ali Baba," the newest "tongue in cheek" production of the Yale Puppeteers, will be presented under the auspices of the Menorah Temple Sisterhood, 8:30 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 19 at Aviation High School, Redondo.

The Yale Puppeteers will be remembered in this area as co-founders of the famous Turnabout Theater and the entire production is under the direction and construction of Harry Burnett. Burnett is the master puppeteer who was responsible for all the "puppet spectaculars" at the Turnabout.

For tickets and further information, Mrs. Paul Sochat is available at FR 5-2251 or Mmes. Melvin Schumacher, FR 5-9805; Robert Eckhouse, FR 5-0228; and Earle Sumpster, FR 1-1825.

CHECK DIABETES—Is the warning given by the Diabetes Association of Southern California during Diabetes Week, Nov. 13 to 19. Aiding in the event is the Torrance Woman's Club with a Diabetes Check Clinic slated for Thursday, Nov. 17, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. at the Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia

Ave. Aiding the cause are (left to right) H. J. Olson, welfare chairman; R. C. Focha, house chairman; R. J. Aspey, president; Henry Bolton, second vice president, Diabetes Association; and S. E. Smith, program chairman.

Busy Times Ahead for Rebekah Lodge

Torrance Rebekah Lodge 347 met last Wednesday, 8 p.m. at the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave.

Frieda Shaffer presided at the regular business session and first nomination of officers. After lodge, Noble Grand Shaffer entertained her officers of the past year. The Fun and Fund Club will visit De Carlo's bakery in San Pedro on Pacific Ave. Wednesday, Nov. 16. All members are requested to participate in this tour, said Mrs. Shaffer. The group will leave Torrance at 1 p.m.

Drill Teams from the Trio Odd Fellow Lodge 495 and Torrance Rebekah lodge 347 are planning installations in January.

They will meet for practice on the first and third Wednesdays of the month for the remainder of the year. Practice sessions are held at 9 p.m. at the Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave.

ONLY TWICE

Only twice has a presidential election been thrown into the House of Representatives because no candidate received a majority of electoral votes. That was in 1800, when Jefferson won, and in 1824, when John Quincy Adams was elected, reports World Book Encyclopedia.

Use classified ads for quick results. Phone DA 5-1515.

LHC Coeds Attend State Conference

Nine Harbor College coeds attended the 32nd annual conference of the Southern California Associated Women Students - Women's Athletic Association, held Friday at Palomar College in San Marcos, California.

Kathleen McNeice, Marge Karow, Rachel Angon, Sonja Savar, Eileen McNeice, Phyllis Whitman, Irene Ayala, Freda West, and Virginia Para, accompanied by faculty adviser Marian L. Perry, represented Harbor at the conference.

Four of the students served as workshop chairmen and recorders. Kathleen McNeice, president of the UAHC Associated Women Students, was the chairman of a workshop which dealt with orientation of new woman students. Rachel Angon was recorder for the group.

Eileen McNeice, president of the Women's Recreational Association of Harbor College, led a workshop on "Women's Athletic Associations: Old and New." Virginia Para was workshop recorder.

The purpose of the conference is to acquaint delegates with the activities, policies, and problems of women's organizations on junior college campuses.

FIRST MISTRESS

The first mistress of the White House was Mrs. John Adams, according to World Book Encyclopedia. The mansion was uncompleted when the couple moved in and Abigail Adams was unimpressed with her new home, where she had to hang out the family wash in the East Room.

Use classified ads for quick results. Phone DA 5-1515.

DELICIOUS, DELECTABLE—was the word for the "Traveling Luncheon" recently held by members of the Los Colinas Garden Club. The desert luncheon course was enjoyed by

(left to right) Mmes. W. F. Stebens, W. O. Pratt, publicity chairman; and G. B. Palmer. Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. Palmer were co-hostesses for the affair.